PROGRAM CHAIR MESSAGE

I would like to invite you all to join us in Quebec City in October for the 2011 annual scientific meeting of CSACI. The planning committee has arranged for an impressive Faculty of Canadian and International speakers to be present.

The program includes cutting edge topics such as nanotechnology, metabolomics and recombinant allergens, as well as Food Allergy, Asthma, Immune Deficiency and Practical demonstrations of Rhinoscopy & Epinephrine Auto injectors.

We would like to thank the Annual Meeting Program Committee and the exceptional and dedicated CSACI staff for all their hard work in developing and planning this interesting and relevant meeting. We look forward to seeing you in Quebec City!

Québec City

Old Québec, a UNESCO world heritage treasure, is alive with history. See for yourself with a visit to the Fortifications of Québec and the Citadel, the city's two main defensive works. Moving from military history to religious history, take in the stunning Notre-Dame-de-Québec Basilica-Cathedral, the Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, the Jesuits Chapel, and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

After stopping off at one of the city's many museums and interpretation centers, take a walking tour or a horse-drawn carriage ride to get a true feel for this unique historic district.

Fine dining and shopping are an art form in Old Québec, particularly along rue Saint-Jean and rue Saint-Louis, where European charm adds a dash of flair to any outing.

Why You Should Attend

As the premier meeting of the allergy, asthma and immunology community, this conference provides several unique and engaging educational opportunities for the participant – such as:

- Interact with an impressive faculty of Canadian and international speakers;
- network with colleagues across settings and disciplines;
- translate scientific discoveries into your practice;
- learn about policy issues that directly affect you;
- raise questions, debate the issues, plan follow-up studies, and discuss results;
- discuss your own research and observation;
- meet with poster presenters to learn about their research objectives; and
- visit a number of exhibit booths featuring products and services specifically designed for professionals in allergy, asthma and immunology.

Target Audience

The CSACI Annual Scientific meeting is intended for clinicians, researchers, trainees/students, and Allied Health professionals involved in research, treatment and management of diseases in allergy, asthma and immunology.

Program Objectives

The CSACI Annual Scientific meeting's main objectives are to provide current information about the diagnosis, treatment and management in allergy, asthma and immunology. This meeting is a setting for interdisciplinary exchange among professionals and provides an excellent opportunity for participants to interact with colleagues and experts in the field. By participating in this conference, attendees can expect to evaluate new trends, techniques, therapies and diagnostic procedures in allergy, asthma and immunology.

CSACI Mission Statement

The mission of the Canadian Society of Allergy and Clinical Immunology is the advancement of the knowledge and practice of allergy, clinical immunology, and asthma for optimal patient care. The Society is also dedicated to improving the quality of life of people with allergies through research, advocacy, continuing professional development and public education.

Continuing Education – Pending CPD Approval

This event is an accredited group learning activity as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.

Please refer to the final program for accredited sessions.

Disclosure

A conflict of interest may be considered to exist if a planner, moderator, and faculty in the annual scientific program is affiliated with, or has a financial interest in commercial organizations that may have a direct or indirect interest in the subject matter of his/her presentation. A “financial interest” may include, but is not limited to, being a direct shareholder in the organization; being on retainer with the organization; or having research or honoraria paid by the organization. An “affiliation” may be holding a position on an advisory committee or some other role of benefit to a sponsoring organization.

The intent of this disclosure requirement is not to prevent a speaker with a conflict of interest from making a presentation but to make known the relationship, in advance, to the audience. It is intended that any conflict be openly identified so that with full disclosure of the facts, attendees may form their own judgments about the presentation.

Disclaimer

The material presented at this meeting represents the opinion of the speakers and not the views of the CSACI.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS IS SEPTEMBER 2ND

ABSTRACTS

The CSACI Abstract Presentation, which is a competition open to CSACI Trainees, AllerGen Trainees, and any Investigators interested in presenting research or clinical case presentations in the fields of allergy, asthma and/or immunology.

Poster viewing sessions are Friday and Saturday. Poster judging will take place on Saturday, October 22 from 14:15 to 15:45.

Libation among the Posters will take place on Saturday, October 22 from 18:00 to 19:30.

For more information, please contact the CSACI.

AWARDS

Each year the CSACI presents the following awards. This year's winners will be announced at the CSACI Awards Dinner on October 22.

The Jerry Dolovich Award

Dr. Jerry Dolovich was a highly respected researcher, clinician, and educator in the field of Allergy. His personal and professional characteristics endeared him to many, and facilitated the process of discovery in his science. In course of his career, Dr. Dolovich achieved several important distinctions - the "Queen Elizabeth II Scientist Award" (1970), the Annual Research Award of the Canadian Society of Allergy and Clinical Immunology (1987), and the "Distinguished Clinician Award" of the American Academy of Allergy, Asthma and Immunology (1997). In 1996, the Canadian Society of Allergy and Clinical Immunology renamed its Annual Research Award as the "Jerry Dolovich Award" for contributions in Allergy and Clinical Immunology in Canada.

Bram Rose Memorial Lectureship

Bram Rose was a founder of the CSACI and a pioneer in the field of Allergy, Asthma and Clinical Immunology. After he passed away, the Canadian Society of Allergy and Clinical Immunology established this lectureship to commemorate his achievements.

David McCourtie Memorial Lectureship

David McCourtie was well recognized for his contribution to teaching in the field of Allergy and Clinical Immunology and was well respected as a physician, teacher and colleague. This lectureship was established by the CSACI in honour of his memory.

CSACI Award for Research in Immunology

An award for a Canadian scientist recognized for his/her contribution to the science of Allergy and Clinical Immunology.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The annual general meeting (AGM) is an important event for the CSACI, where members get a broad overview of the current activities and directions of the society. It is also the time to revitalise the CSACI through the election of members to key positions. CAAIF AGM will follow.

All CSACI members are invited to attend the CSACI and CAAIF AGMs
Saturday, October 22
08:30 to 09:30

Participants will be eligible to win a prize!

CAAIF SIGNATURE EVENTS

Each year the Canadian Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Foundation (CAAIF), as part of the CSACI Annual Scientific Meeting, holds its signature event to help raise funds to further research into the causes, prevention and treatment of allergic diseases and to educate health care professionals, patients and the public about the advances in research and treatment. With the significant increase of allergic diseases and asthma over the past 20 years, today more than 30% of all Canadians are affected – and with the shrinking of funds and resources, the Foundation is very much in need of your support.

CAAIF's Fundraising Reception
October 21 – Quebec Legislative Assembly

Le Parlementaire – you will have a chance to sample some of Quebec's finest cuisine. Tickets will be sold for a special draw!

CAAIF SILENT AUCTION

This year's SILENT AUCTION (Saturday, October 22) will showcase Canadian artwork and wine in support of our cause. Your kind donation would be a wonderful way to show your support of our goals. In addition, you will receive a tax receipt for the value of your donated item.

Most importantly, please recognize that your contribution helps advance the crucial efforts of the Canadian Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Foundation which is committed to excellence in research, education and training in all areas of allergy, asthma, immunology and allergic diseases in Canada.

Help improve the quality of life for so many Canadians and eliminate a disease that can have a devastating impact and, in some cases, life threatening. Join us by participating in this exciting and worthwhile event!

For more information please contact the CAAIF Head office at caaif@royalcollege.ca or call us at 613-730-6272.

FELLOW IN TRAINING WORKSHOP

This is an excellent opportunity for FITs to broaden their understanding of allergy, asthma and immunology. Part of this workshop will include time for networking with fellow FITs as well as meet program directors, professors and mentors.

NREP / FIT / ALLERGEN TRAINEES NETWORKING EVENT

The participants will have an opportunity to interact with peers and exchange information regarding his/her future career in allergy, asthma and clinical immunology.

FIT BOWL

Join your colleagues for some snacks and drinks while the Allergy residents compete in a light-hearted contest of medical and allergy trivia, combined with some non-medical trivia. It promises to be a great time. Come cheer on your favourite team of residents. Everyone is welcome.

NREP

The National Residents Educational Program (NREP) is designed to increase interest in the subspecialty of Allergy & Clinical Immunology among full-time Canadian medical students and residents in training.

The CSACI extends this fully funded invitation, and a unique opportunity, for one resident from the Pediatrics and Internal Medicine specialties, to attend the CSACI annual scientific meeting. The program directors nominate a potential candidate with demonstrated interest in the subspecialty to attend the meeting. The NREP program co-chairs, will then review the candidate's application to determine suitability for sponsorship.

The purpose of this program is to provide an opportunity for a resident to participate in a high-calibre scientific meeting and be exposed to the most current information and trends in Allergy and Clinical Immunology. Furthermore, the resident will have an opportunity to interact with peers and exchange information regarding his/her future career and attend three social events; the Young Professionals in Allergy & Immunology networking event, the Canadian Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Foundation Reception and the Canadian Society of Allergy and Clinical Immunology Annual Awards and Dinner.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The CSACI's major project is the annual scientific meeting. It provides an excellent opportunity for specialists and researchers in the field of allergy, asthma, and clinical immunology as well as allied health professionals from Canada and around the world to meet in an atmosphere conducive to medical, scientific and social interaction.

The CSACI is an accredited provider of Continuing Professional Development (CPD) activities, and as such, we support and provide opportunities for our members to enhance their medical education.

As a corporate partner, CSACI a number of avenues to acknowledge the partner throughout the year such as CSACI events, through printed and electronic promotional material and much more. We have the 2011 CSACI Prospectus as well as a sponsorship agreement which outline partnership possibilities.

EXHIBITS

This year's meeting promises to be our best ever with over 250 allergists, clinicians, researchers, trainees/students and allied health professionals expected to attend. The Exhibitor Hall is an integral part of the CSACI annual meeting as it provides participants with the most current information on products and services related to allergies, asthma and clinical immunology.

FOR MORE EXHIBITOR INFORMATION PLEASE VISIT
www.csaci.ca

As a CSACI Exhibitor you will have the opportunity to:

- Highlight your organization's commitment to Allergy, Asthma and Clinical Immunology education and build visibility for your company in a competitive marketplace
- Enhance your profile in the Canadian allergy and asthma community
- Interact with Canadian and international allergists, clinical immunologists as well as allied health professionals
- Target influential decision-makers
- Expand and strengthen existing customer relationships
- Introduce new products and services
- Give product demonstrations; and
- Support the CSACI and the allergy, asthma and immunology specialties!
